

I don't want to see the "Do Not Call" law overturned. As American citizens we have the right not to be disturbed in our own home if we so choose. If this law gets overturned it will send a strong message to the people that our government truly cares only about big business and not the common individual.